Subject: Welfare of CPMFs Personnel: Ardh Sainik Children Admission Scheme:
Admission session 2017-2018

Sir,

Kindly refer MHA Letter No.27011/30/2015-R&W dated 2nd November 2015 on the subject (copy enclosed).

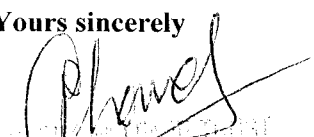

2. In the stressful service conditions, providing of the constant and regular motivation and guidance to their subordinates has been a challenging task to the commanders at all levels. Therefore, the www.ArdhSainik.com (a welfare online website/platform) has come up with a project which provides guidance and motivation to the force personnel at all level for the admission of their wards in reputed public schools. In this endeavor, this platform has successfully provided/facilitated admission of 123 wards of CPMFs personnel in the following schools with hostel facilities for the academic session 2016-2017 on discounted fee structure basis:-

- 1) Delhi Public School, Sonipat, Haryana
- 2) Delhi Public School, Panipat, Haryana
- 3) Touchwood Public School, Dehradun, Uttrakhand
- 4) Alpine Valley Boarding School, Faridabad, Haryana
- 5) Springfield Public School, Ambala, Haryana. (on Ambala-Chandigarh highway)

3. The Ardh Sainik children Admission Scheme for session 2017-2018 is enclosed which is self explanatory. It is proposed to continue these efforts and also hope to facilitate more number of wards in their admission in above schools and also many more such schools which have agreed to extend this facility to our wards. In these efforts, there shall be no financial and administrative liability of the Government, kindly forward the scheme for further circulation among the force personnel for availing admission facility.

Encl: as above:

Ardh Sainik Children Admission Scheme (Session April 2017- March 2018) – ~~110023-2018~~

1. BACKGROUND

- a) Given the bulk deployment of CPMFs in very difficult conditions and terrain where basic education facilities are meager and not upto the mark and given the statistics that maximum of the SOs/ORs hail from rural or semi rural India where education system is not of level which can give a competitive edge to the wards of these personnel. For a middle class or lower middle class family to which maximum of CPMFs personnel belong, education is the easiest way to make a career for their children but the same has become a distant dream due to very high cost of good education in constantly evolving society.
- b) Given this backdrop and today's stressful service conditions wherein a constant and permanent motivation to subordinates has been a challenging task to the commanders at all levels, the Ardh Sainik Welfare Trust (ASWT) has come up with a project last year and successfully provided admission to the wards of CPMFs personnel in the following schools for the academic session 2016-2017 with discounted fee structure with hostel facilities.

- 1) DPS Sonipat
- 2) DPS Panipat
- 3) Touchwood Public School, Dehradun
- 4) Alpine Valley Boarding School, Faridabad
- 5) Springfield Public School, Ambala (on Ambala-Chandigarh highway)

2. INITIATIVE OF www.ArdhSainik.com

The Ardh Sainik Welfare Trust (Regd), being committed to look after the welfare of Force personnel and their NOKs, has decided to provide the maximum support to the Children of CPMFs personnel, initially through admission in quality institutions. Accordingly, arrangements have been made up with the following renowned Public Schools, having hostel facilities and also providing day schooling, in major cities of North India including NCR to reserve seats for Children of CPMFs personnel as under.

Matter is in process to take more schools on panel, however, following additional schools now on panel:-

- 1) Hayde Heritage Academy, Kotdwar, Uttrakhand.
- 2) Gurugram Public School, Gurgaon.
- 3) Prince Public School, Rohini, New Delhi.
- 4) Mothers Divine Public School, Rohini, New Delhi.

3. SALIENT FEATUTES OF ARDH SAINIK CHILDREN ADMISSION SCHEME

- a) The annual fees package with hostel facility will be discounted from 40 to 60%, and the amount so paid can be claimed through hostel subsidy.
- b) No donations to be paid.
- c) A relaxed criterion for admission of wards of CPMFs personnel.
- d) The nominations/applications for admissions from class 1st to 11th are invited for the coming academic session i.e. 1st April, 2017.
- e) Admission will be given to the wards in choice of city/school as per availability of seat.
- f) The wards who excel in Sports and are selected for the sports meet at International level will further be given fee concession.

- g) The students who scores overall up to 10th position in Board examination, will be given free education up to graduation in whatever stream they opt for and such expenses will be borne by the school from which the student passes out.
- h) In the event of untimely demise of the service personnel during the service, free education will be provided to the ward of the deceased upto 12th standard by the school concerned in recognition of yeoman service rendered to the nation.

4. DAY SCHOOLING:

Now day schooling is also offered by the schools on our panel. Suitable fee structure is decided, however, if any additional cost due to transport or any other reasons will be bear by the parents concern. Accommodation of the students will be core responsibility of the parents.

5. ELIGIBILITY:
